"There was a family altar in our house
And the children were brought up
According to the strictest views
On religious matters.
My gratitude for such a home
Increased with the years."

"To the young man who is building character
I present the Bible as a book that is useful always . . .
It guides the footsteps of the young;
It throws a light upon the pathway in mature years;
It is the only book when the end is near."

"He lacks reverence who believes that religion is unable
To defend herself in contest with error.
He places a low estimate upon the strength of religion,
Who thinks that the wisdom of God
Must be supplemented
By the force of man's puny arm."

"Love, not force, was the weapon of the Nazarene;
Sacrifice for others, not the exploitation of them,
Was His method of reaching the human heart.
If true Christianity consists in carrying out in our lives
The teachings of Christ, who will say that we are commanded
To civilize with dynamite and proselyte with the sword."

* * * *

"If we were to refuse to eat anything
Until we could understand . . . its creation
We would die of starvation—
But mystery, it seems, never bothers us in the dining room;
It is only in the church that it causes us to hesitate."

Message from President

March 19, 1946.

Miss Elaine Kennard, Editor
The Commoner
William Jennings Bryan University
Dayton, Tennessee

DEAR MISS KENNARD:

I am glad that you are paying special tribute in this year's Commoner to William Jennings Bryan as the Defender of the Faith. Many do not know that his "Last Battle" was but the culmination of a warfare for the faith carried on for several years before his death in Dayton. Many people know that he was mightily used of God, but do not know that he was definitely called of God.

For several years Mr. Bryan pondered what was a God-given call to become the champion of the Defense of the Faith. Each week for five years five Godly ministers of Buffalo, New York, met for prayer, having as a special object of prayer that William Jennings Bryan would devote the remaining years of his life to the Defense of the Faith against the inroads of Modernism. Our friend, Dr. Ernest M. Wadsworth, Director of the Great Commission Prayer League, was one of these praying ministers; the leader of the group was the Rev. Josiah H. Miller, Pastor of the Hedstrom Memorial Baptist Church of Buffalo.

Finally, a former parishioner of the Reverend Mr. Miller sent a gift to him asking that he visit their family in Lincoln, Nebraska, where William Jennings Bryan was then living. Mr. Miller made the trip to Lincoln, being assured that the Lord would have him present the matter about which they had been praying to Mr. Bryan himself. Mr. Bryan considered the interview so important that he delayed a phone call from the President of the United States for thirty minutes while they completed their discussion and joined in a dedicatory prayer. Mr. Bryan left that interview and prayer meeting no longer hesitant about God's call. He went forth "The Defender of the Faith."

Cordially yours in Christ,

JUDSON A. RUDD.

An Invitation

We advise young men who aspire to a denominational ministry, to take their training and secure their ordination under the auspices of the denomination in which they expect to function. However, if you are a Fundamental Pastor, Missionary, or Evangelist, regardless of sex, now in Interdenominational or Undenominational work, or you expect to be so engaged, and are hungry for the spiritual fellowship and solidarity of an Association in which you will be able to feel the warmth, friendship and cooperation of a large, consecrated family of Gospel Workers, then we say: "Come with us and we will do thee good."
